

First of all, the login and registration functions need to be implemented, to use the user name and password, when the registration, whether the user name or password need to be more than 8, if any one less than 8 will be prompted, and require re-input.

At the same time, if the two password inconsistencies will prompt the password input is not accurate.

Display our applogo icon when the login and registration interface is not displayed.